Death

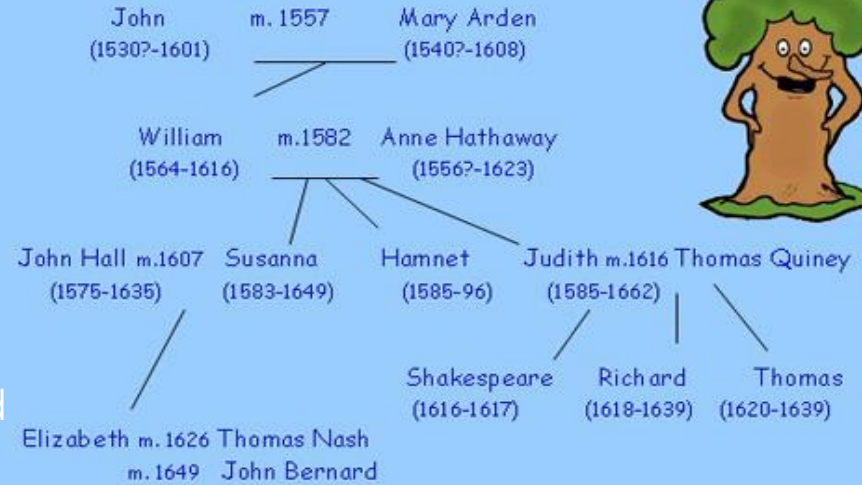

A portrait of William Shakespeare, showing him from the chest up. He has a high forehead, dark hair, and a beard. He is wearing a dark, high-collared garment. The background is a textured, slightly mottled grey.

William Shakespeare

His wife Anne Hathaway was eight years older than Shakespeare. He was eighteen when he married her in 1582. They had three children – a son, Hamnet, who died in 1596, and two daughters, Susanna and Judith. Shakespeare's grandchildren all died.

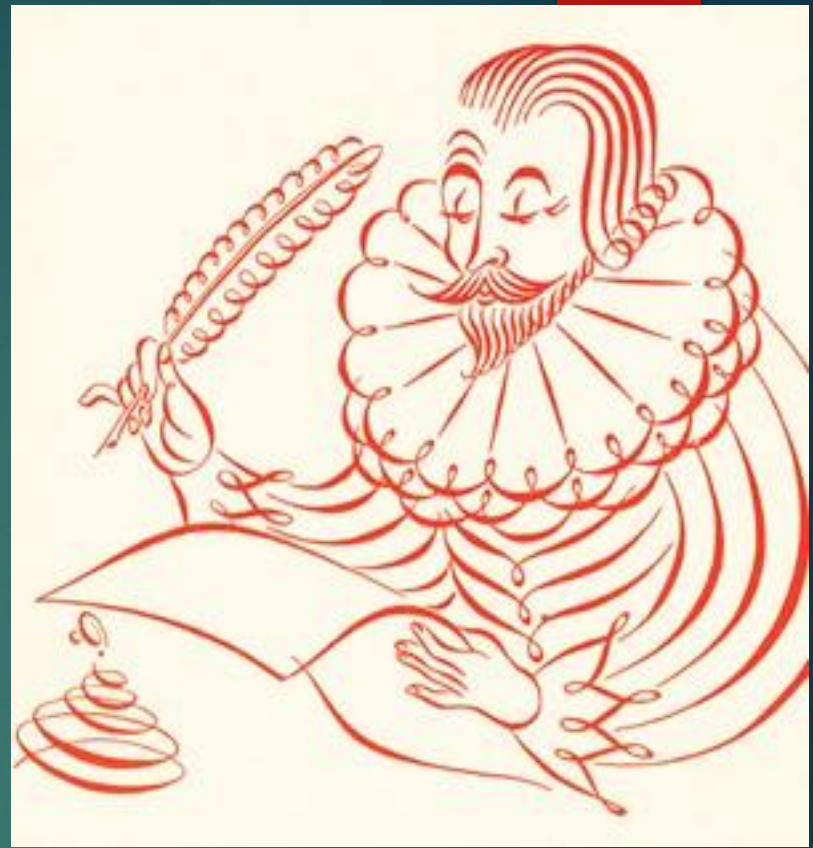

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S FAMILY TREE

Shakespeare's family were all illiterate
William did not go to college.

The only granddaughter Elizabeth – the daughter of Susanna – died childless in 1670. So he had no descendents.

Sometime after his unsuccessful application to become a gentleman, Shakespeare took his father to the College of Arms to secure their own Shakespeare family crest. The crest was a yellow spear on a yellow shield, with the Latin inscription “Non Sans Droict”, or “Not without Right”.

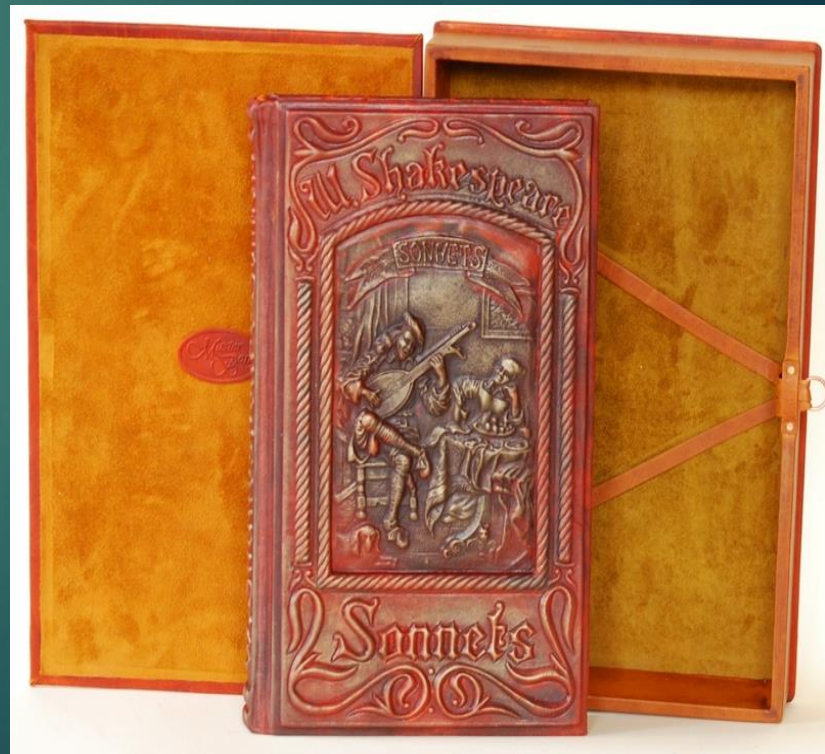

- ▶ During his life, Shakespeare wrote 37 plays and 154 sonnets! This means an average 1.5 plays a year since he first started writing in 1589. In addition there are a number of "lost plays".
- ▶ Shakespeare stopped writing plays and began writing his sonnets when the plague shut down his playhouse.
- ▶ Leo Tolstoy disliked W. Shakespeare's works so much that he considered him "an average author".

Shakespeare's Sonnets. 61-70

Shakespeare wrote the plays, not for the purpose of reading but to be performed on stage and therefore, he never published any of his plays. All thanks to his fellow actors – John Hemminges and Henry Condell who compiled and published 36 of them seven years after his death.

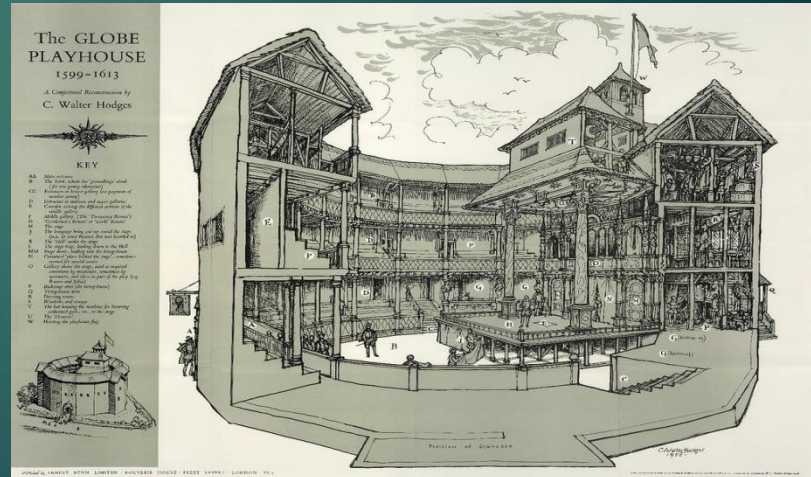

Few people realize that apart from writing his numerous plays and sonnets, Shakespeare was also an actor who performed many of his own plays.

There is evidence that he played the ghost in Hamlet and Adam in As You Like It.

Shakespeare is referred to as an Elizabethan playwright. During his life he performed before Queen Elizabeth I and, later, before James I who was an enthusiastic patron of his works.

Hamlet is the most produced play in the world. It is also the longest of Shakespeare's plays Hamlet's monologue.

Shakespeare and his company built TWO Globe Theatres.

He also invented the names: Olivia, Miranda, Jessica and Cordelia.

- ▶ Shakespeare had one of the largest vocabularies of any English writer, about 30, 000 words.
- ▶ Shakespeare invented 1700 new words and expressions. He invented such words as assassination (разрушение), fashionable (модный), in a pickle (попасть в переплет), bump (столкновение, глухой удар). Nearly 50 Shakespeare's neologisms are used in modern English.
- ▶ It is believed that Shakespeare influenced the English language more than any other writer in history.

Shylock and Jessica (1876) by Maurycy Gottlieb, an image from The Merchant of Venice

«If music be a play of love, play on!»
О, музыка, ты пища для любви!
Играйте же.

«Neither a borrower nor a lender be»
В долг не давай и займы не бери.

«Life is not all cakes and ale»
Жизнь прожить – не поле перейти.

«Brevity is the soul of wit»
Краткость – сестра таланта.

«Sweets to the sweet»
Прекрасное – прекрасной.

«All is well that ends well»
Все хорошо, что хорошо кончается.

«The beginning of the end»
Начало конца.

«The whirling of time»
Превратности судьбы.

According to the Oxford Dictionary of Quotations, Shakespeare wrote close to a tenth of the most quoted lines ever written or spoken in English. What's more, according to the Literature Encyclopaedia, Shakespeare is the second most quoted English writer after the writers of the Bible.

«There's the rub»
Вот в чем загвоздка.

«To win golden opinions»
Заслужить благоприятное мнение.

«All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players»
Весь мир театр. В нем женщины, мужчины – все актеры

«Have more than you show. Speak less than you know»
Имей больше, чем показываешь. Говори меньше, чем знаешь.

In 1890 an avid fan of Shakespeare Eugene Schieffelin imported two flocks of 60 starlings to America because Shakespeare mentioned them briefly in Henry IV. Source

OWN AN HISTORIC
1611 KING JAMES BIBLE LEAF

IMAGINE AN AUTHENTIC ACTUAL LEAF FROM THE ORIGINAL EDITION IN YOUR HOME OR OFFICE.

The complex block features three distinct images. On the left is the title page of the King James Bible, showing the text 'THE HOLY BIBLE, Containing the Old Testament and the New, Translated out of the Originall Copies of both the same into English, by the Learned Men of the Universities of Oxenford and Cambridge, under the Correction and Review of many Learned and Pious Divines, now living: Approved by Authority, and Published by Commandement, Anno Domini 1611.' In the center is a portrait of King James I, dressed in a white and red robe with a large white collar. On the right is a page from the New Testament, with the text 'THE NEWE Testament of our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ. Newly Translated out of the Originall Copies, and corrected by the Learned Men of the Universities of Oxenford and Cambridge, under the Correction and Review of many Learned and Pious Divines, now living: Approved by Authority, and Published by Commandement, Anno Domini 1611.' The page is highly decorative with intricate borders.

In the King James Bible the 46th word of Psalm 46 is 'shake' and the 46th word from the end of the same Psalm is 'spear'. Some think this was a hidden birthday message to the Bard, as the King James Bible was published in 1611 – the year of Shakespeare's 46th birthday.

He also had an extraordinary grasp of medical science. In 37 plays he mentions practically all the diseases and drugs of the day and some of his descriptions could not be bettered by any modern doctor.

All Uranus' satellites are named after Shakespearean characters, but not even a star has been named after the writer himself.

Shakespeare is buried near the altar of Holy Trinity Church, where he was baptized, in Stratford-upon Avon. He wrote his own epitaph for his grave as a curse to repel grave thieves. His epitaph was: Good friend for Jesus' sake forbear, To dig the dust enclosed here: Blest be the man that spares these stones, And curst be he that moves my bones.

On his death Shakespeare made several gifts to various people but left his property to his daughter, Susanna. The only mention of his wife in Shakespeare's own will is: "I gyve unto my wief my second best bed with the furniture". The "furniture" was the bedclothes for the bed.

Match Shakespeare's phrases with their Russian equivalents.

What's in a name? That which we call a rose. By any other name would smell as sweet.

Беды, когда идут, идут не в одиночку, а толпами.

A horse! A horse! My kingdom for a horse!

Прости, прости. Прощанье в час разлуки, Несет с собою столько сладкой муки, Что до утра могла б прощаться я.

Good night, good night, parting is such sweet sorrow. That I shall say good night till it be tomorrow.

Что в имени? То, что зовем мы розой, И под другим названием сохраняло б свой сладкий запах!

I must be cruel, only to be kind.

Из жалости я должен быть жесток.

When sorrows come, they not single spies. But in battalions.

Коня! Коня! Венец мой за коня!.
